His Excellency, President Hage G. Geingob expresses condolences to Honourable Juliet Kavetuna, Deputy Minister of Health on the loss of her father, Comrade Freddy Kavetuna

The President of the Republic of Namibia and Chairperson of the Southern African Development Community (SADC), His Excellency, Dr. Hage G. Geingob expresses sincere condolences in a letter addressed to Honourable Juliet Kavetuna and the family of the late Comrade Freddy Kavetuna, who was laid to rest on 6 October 2018.

In the message of condolences, President Geingob says:

“Bro Skelly, as he was affectionately known by his peers, has departed this world, and by so doing, left a void in the family and community which cannot be filled. However, we pray that you maintain your calm and resign yourself to the will of our Lord. Life and death is not in the hands of human beings. “

During this period of bereavement, President Geingob wishes the Kavetuna family strength to deal with the loss of their loved one.
